

NACUSACNews: Summer 2025

Highlights from NACUSAC 2025 Charleston Conference

From June 18-21, more than 100 credit union supervisory committee members and audit professionals gathered in the historic city of Charleston to participate in a robust mix of sessions, including updates on industry trends, strategies for effective oversight, emerging risk areas, and best practices for committees. DCUC CEO Tony Hernandez opened the conference with a legislative briefing followed on Day 2 with TruStage economist Steve Rick (pictured) giving an economic forecast for credit unions.

Two NACUSAC University Graduates Recognized

On June 19, supervisory committee members Jill Schroeder of VacationLand Federal Credit Union (OH) and Donna Carvin of TruMark Financial Credit Union (PA) graduated from NACUSAC University during the 2025 Annual Conference in Charleston, South Carolina.
