2026 Conference Recap: Strengthening Oversight in San Diego

The 2026 NACUSAC Annual Conference & Expo featured an exceptional lineup of industry experts delivering practical insights to strengthen supervisory committee effectiveness. From cybersecurity to AI oversight and other critical topics, attendees left better prepared to safeguard their credit unions against evolving risks.

Ancin Cooley of Synergy Credit Union Consulting, opened the conference with sessions on the role of the Supervisory/Audit Committee, exploring principles-based oversight, risk-based decision-making, and strategies for building an effective committee framework.

Attendees connected with peers, shared best practices, and enjoyed memorable networking opportunities, including an evening at the San Diego Zoo. The conference concluded with an inspiring and entertaining closing performance by Mike Rayburn, blending music, storytelling, and motivation.
